

Look at This World

Written by Jeff Soulman Brown

Look at This World that we're livin in
You don't know where you're goin and
You don't know where you've been
Friends becoming distant
They weren't friends anyway
Children stop asking questions
Because parents have nothing to say
I said look, look, look at this world that we're Livin in
I said look, look, look at this world that we're
Living in
Used to be a time you could get a friendly smile
People used to stop and even talk a little while Now all of a sudden when there's something to
Be said
Nobody wants to listen everybody turns their head
I said look, look, look at this world that we're living in
I said look, look, look at this world that we're living in
Now it's getting harder to make it through the day
Something or someone always seems to be in your way
And after you've fought it off one by one
Someone will come along and undo all that you've done
I said look, look, look at this world that we're living in
Take a look
Take a good look
Take a look
Take a good look

You got to stop what you're doin
You got to stop what you're doin
Stop look
You got to look at this world
Don't know where you're goin
Don't know where you've been
Take a look at this world
You got to stop and take a look
